Sixth Sunday of Easter Reflection

Making a home is a big opportunity of love for a husband and wife and a family. We try to make it our own: pictures and memorabilia here and there that make a home out of a house. It doesn't have to be perfect. They want others to be able to feel at home in their home also. The same with Jesus. In our hearts and the depths of our personality he makes a home for himself and the Father. He asks for a loving and welcoming heart, not a place that is perfect, tidy and clean. To make a home is a work of love. Jesus making of a home in us comes through our growth and development in love. The loving marriage, the loving friendship, the heart that cares for others, the family that is open to faith and love – these are what makes Jesus feel at home. This is a strange way of looking on God. We think of God in the power of nature and almost the maker of history. God seems to reject this all-powerful view of himself and make himself simple, humble and accessible in the home of our hearts. Home is a place of help. We look for each other and the content home is where each care for the other. St Ignatius used say each day, 'Who can I help today?'. Maybe we can make that part of the music of our homes. This is God helping through you, and it is God finding us and each other in love.

Lord, open my heart to prayer and care this day. Open my eyes to the beauty and the problems of others. Open my heart to your love for me.

In Christ & God Bless
Deacon Dean

Memorial Day Remembrance

Memorial Day is an opportunity to honor the great sacrifices of those who died in battle. It can also be a call to restore hope in the midst of our most dire circumstances. Isaiah, the great prophet who envisioned a time when swords and spears would be turned into plowshares and pruning hooks (Isaiah 2:4), recognized the transitory nature of life and the enduring presence of God. "All people are grass; their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades... but the word of our God will stand forever" (Isaiah 40:6-8). As we remember our fallen soldiers, may we also cling to the dream of a day when it will no longer be necessary to build memorials to those killed in battle as peace flowers among all humankind.

Reflexión del sexto domingo de Pascua

Hacer un hogar es una gran oportunidad de amor para un esposo y esposa y una familia. Tratamos de hacerlo nuestro: fotos y recuerdos aquí y allá que conforman un hogar fuera de casa. No tiene que ser perfecto. Quieren que otros también puedan sentirse como en casa en su hogar. Lo mismo con Jesús. En nuestros corazones y en lo más profundo de nuestra personalidad, él hace un hogar para sí mismo y para el Padre. Él pide un corazón amoroso y acogedor, no un lugar que sea perfecto, ordenado y limpio. Hacer un hogar es una obra de amor. La creación de un hogar en nosotros por parte de Jesús viene a través de nuestro crecimiento y desarrollo en el amor. El matrimonio amoroso, la amistad amorosa, el corazón que se preocupa por los demás, la familia que está abierta a la fe y al amor, esto es lo que hace que Jesús se sienta como en casa. Esta es una forma extraña de mirar a Dios. Pensamos en Dios en el poder de la naturaleza y casi el creador de la historia. Dios parece rechazar esta visión todopoderosa de sí mismo y hacerse simple, humilde y accesible en el hogar de nuestros corazones. El hogar es un lugar de ayuda. Nos buscamos y el contenido del hogar es donde cada uno se preocupa por el otro. San Ignacio usó cada día "¿A quién puedo ayudar hoy?". Tal vez podamos hacer esa parte de la música de nuestros hogares. Este es Dios ayudando a través de ti, y es Dios encontrándonos a nosotros y unos a otros en amor. Señor, abre mi corazón a la oración y al cuidado este día. Abre mis ojos a la belleza y los problemas de los demás. Abre mi corazón a tu amor por mí.

En Cristo y Dios Bendiga
Diácono decano

Memorial Day Memorial

El Día de los Caídos es una oportunidad para honrar los grandes sacrificios de aquellos que murieron en la batalla. También puede ser una llamada a restaurar la esperanza en medio de nuestras más terribles circunstancias. Isaías, el gran profeta que imaginó un momento en que las espadas y las lanzas se convertirían en arados compartidos y ganchos de poda (Isaías 2: 4), reconoció la naturaleza transitoria de la vida y la presencia perdurable de Dios. "Todas las personas son hierba; Su constancia es como la flor del campo. La hierba se seca, la flor se desvanece ... pero la palabra de nuestro Dios permanecerá para siempre" (Isaías 40: 6-8). Mientras recordamos a nuestros soldados caídos, también podemos aferrarnos al sueño de un día en el que ya no será necesario construir monumentos conmemorativos para los muertos en batalla como flores de paz entre toda la humanidad.

Memorial Jou komémoration

Jou Memoryal la se yon opòtinite pou onore gwo sakrifis moun ki te mouri nan batay la. Li kapab tou yon apèl retabli espwa nan mitan nan pi fò sikonstans nou an. Ezayi, gwo pwofèt la ki te vizite yon tan kote nepe ak frenn yo ta tounen plowshares ak kwòk koupe (Ezayi 2: 4), rekonèt nati a tranzitwa nan lavi ak prezans nan dirab nan Bondye. "Tout moun se zèb; konstans yo tankou flè jaden an. Zèb la cheche, flè a disparèt ... men pawòl Bondye nou an ap rete pou tout tan "(Ezayi 40: 6-8). Kòm nou sonje sòlda ki te tonbe nou yo, se pou nou tou rete kole sou rèv la nan yon jou lè li p ap nesesè ankò yo bati moniman moun ki mouri nan batay kòm flè lapè nan mitan tout limanite.
