Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

The narrow gate is an interesting image. Only the essentials would get in and out. In the times a camel with all its load wouldn't fit. Jesus is reminding us of how little we really need. Being with him, we can live in some simplicity. Baggage, that can burden us — go to an airport and if you have little you get through quick. The little ways we build ourselves up to be important! St Ignatius lists three things that block us from God and from living the really alive life — obsessions with wealthy, honor and pride. Wealth — would it be the burden of debts for money we really didn't need? Wanting to have the best. Honor — demanding others look up to us. Always feeling we have to be first and best, even how we dress and look. Pride — that we are in charge of our lives. Then we have less room for God.

The narrow gate is the happy gate. One of our pictures of it is of someone dancing in the narrow gate in Jerusalem. helping hands We need little to be happy. We need the rest to be satisfied. We can even have too much religious baggage. Too many rituals and prayers and not enough love and compassion. We can stuff ourselves with rituals and rightness and forget compassion. But is it really narrow? The gospel and the first reading — when we live simply there is room for everyone. And the strangest of people will move in with us. It's not really narrow — for all are to get through. Jesus invites us to meet him at this narrow gate and be less cluttered. Then we walk with him, and will need no more.

Prayer for Labor Day

On this weekend, when we rest from our usual labors, loving Father, we pray for all who shoulder the tasks of human labor—in the marketplace, in factories and offices, in the professions, and in family living. We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name. We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere.

May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity. May our working and our resting all give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

God Bless,
 Deacon Dean

Introducing, guided tours! Every Saturday at 3:00 pm we will conduct guided tours of our beautiful church. Please join us and bring along your family and friends!

Vigésimo primer domingo del tiempo ordinario

La puerta estrecha es una imagen interesante. Solo lo esencial entraría y saldría. En los tiempos en que un camello con toda su carga no cabía. Jesús nos recuerda lo poco que realmente necesitamos. Al estar con él, podemos vivir con cierta simplicidad. Equipaje, eso puede ser una carga para nosotros: vaya a un aeropuerto y, si tiene poco, pasará rápidamente. ¡Las pequeñas formas en que nos construimos para ser importantes! San Ignacio enumera tres cosas que nos bloquean de Dios y de vivir una vida realmente viva: obsesiones con los ricos, el honor y el orgullo. Riqueza: ¿sería la carga de las deudas por dinero que realmente no necesitábamos? Queriendo tener lo mejor. Honor: exigir que otros nos admiren. Siempre sintiendo que tenemos que ser los primeros y los mejores, incluso cómo nos vestimos y nos vemos. Orgullo: que estamos a cargo de nuestras vidas. Entonces tenemos menos espacio para Dios. La puerta estrecha es la puerta feliz. Una de nuestras imágenes es de alguien bailando en la puerta estrecha de Jerusalén. manos amigas Necesitamos poco para ser felices. Necesitamos el resto para estar satisfechos. Incluso podemos tener demasiado equipaje religioso. Demasiados rituales y oraciones y poco amor y compasión. Podemos llenarnos de rituales y rectitud y olvidar la compasión. ¿Pero es realmente estrecho? El evangelio y la primera lectura: cuando vivimos, simplemente hay espacio para todos. Y la gente más extraña se mudará con nosotros. No es realmente angosto, ya que todos deben pasar. Jesús nos invita a encontrarnos con él en esta puerta estrecha y estar menos abarrotados. Luego caminamos con él y no necesitaremos más.

Mache ak Jezi

Bagay ki pi enpòtan ou ka aprann se chèche Jezi. Li vle yon relasyon pèsònèl avèk ou. Li pa garanti lavi a pral fasil men li pwomèt pou l avèk nou epi pou l ede nou. Li vle tandè pale de ou, dezi ou yo, aspirasyon, anvè, pwoblèm, enkyetid, demann, elatriye Men, li tou vle konvès ak ou tou. Jezi vle bay direksyon ak direksyon. Li vle ba ou lide ak mo nan ankourajman. Èske w gen tankou yon relasyon ak Bondye se trè enteresan! Mwen ta ankouraje w pou chache Bondye chak jou. Pale ak li menm jan ou ta yon zanmi, yon moun ou ka fè konfyans ak konfyè nan "lapriyè" tou senpleman vle di pale ak Bondye. Men, tou pase tan koute Jezi.

Lè w resevwa Jezi ak kado Sali li a, w ap gen espwa nan mond sa a. Pataje sa a ak lòt moun. Gen anpil lòt moun ki gen ankò tandè ke yo menm tou ka gen espwa. Pataje sa Bondye te fè pou ou. Yo rele sa temwayaj ou. Pa dekouraje moun ki pa reponn. Priye pou yo epi kontinye pataje. Mande Seyè a opòtinite pou pataje. Mache ak Jezi toujou epi li pral mache avèk ou.

Dyak Dean
